FORBIDDEN BARREL BREWING CO.
900 Third Avenue • Worthington, MN
Forbidden Barrel Brewing Co. offers a rotation of four to six original beers made on site as well as a variety of porters, stout, IPAs, honey wheats and other high-end brews. The name and logo are derived from an 1872 story about East Coast settlers who didn’t abide by Worthington’s temperance movement. During a Fourth of July celebration, Prof. Ransom Humiston, Worthington’s founder, learned there was a keg of beer in the Worthington House Hotel, so he seized it, dragged it outside and destroyed it with an axe. Call 507-329-2071 or visit www.forbiddenbarrel.com

HISTORIC DAYTON HOUSE
1311 4th Avenue • Worthington, MN

This magnificent house was built in 1890 by George Draper Dayton. He arrived in Worthington in 1883 and recognizing Worthington’s potential, helped establish a thriving agricultural community. In 1902, the family left Worthington to pursue a mercantile business in Minneapolis which later became Dayton’s Dry Goods Company, or simply Dayton’s. The house was purchased by Historic Worthington, Inc., an organization formed to preserve local historic buildings. Through thoughtful donations, this legendary home has been preserved for future generations. SISTER CITY

Founded in 1947, the sister-city relationship between Worthington and Crailsheim, Germany began as a post WWII relief effort. Crailsheim was chosen because it was close in size and structure to Worthington.

Tons of clothing and donated items arrived in Crailsheim which was 70% bombed. Pen-pal relationships began and a student exchange program was initiated. The exchange students arrive in late July or early August and stay with four different families throughout the year.

The sister-city relationship was given the honor of receiving the first WORLD BROTHERHOOD AWARD in 1958. Many official visits and personal friendships have resulted from this relationship. It is believed to be one of the oldest and most viable relationships that has survived post WWII.

Contact with Worthington Crailsheim International, Inc. may be made through Worthington Area Chamber of Commerce at 507-372-2919
Paralleling I-90 from each exit to the city, an ag fleet/farm store, retail, financial, office supply, auto sales, service, farm implements, hotels, communication and convenience stores are found on both sides of this busy thoroughfare.

Quaint lighting, comfortable benches and decorative columns give ambiance for the wide variety of unique shops found downtown. Sanford Worthington Medical Center is located here, as are legal offices, drugstore, healthcare facilities, and financial service establishments. Home furnishings, gifts, brewery, clothing, ethnic shops and eating establishments give a truly unique shopping experience.

At Exit 43 from I-90 this street leads to Oxford Street. It houses hotels, auto sales, beauty, eating establishments, gas and convenience stations.

Stretching along the east and south Hwy 59/60 corridor is a succession of retail businesses. Lumber/building supplies, farm implements, agriculture parts/salvage, scrap metal/steel sales, and gas/convenience station can be easily accessed.

This street intersects with North Humiston. Nationally known retail stores are located here with furniture, financial, jewelry, beauty, clothing, health care, fleet/farm store, communication, sporting goods and eating establishments.

CENTENNIAL PARK
Centennial Park was originally the city pasture (also known as Whiskey Ditch pasture) where the residents kept their dairy cows. It was named in 1958 to commemorate the state’s centennial. Facilities include a shelter house, restrooms, playground, volleyball and basketball courts, swim beach, beach house and splash pad. The park is adjacent to the boat landing.

CHAUTAUQUA PARK
The city’s first park was given this name as it was the place where the Chautauqua Programs were started from 1906 until 1931. This site was chosen on the shores of Lake Okabena and close to the business district. Facilities include a shelter house, restrooms, horseshoe courts and a band shell with seating for Wednesday night summer concerts.

EHLERS PARK
Ehlers Park is named for long-time park superintendent A.J. Ehlers, whose handiwork can be seen throughout the park system. Ehlers Park has a shelter house, picnic tables, playground and dock.

FREEDOM SHORE PARK
Freedom Shore Park, located on the lake’s south shore, was developed in 1976, the year of our nation’s bicentennial celebration. In 2007, a Veterans’ Memorial was constructed honoring those who sacrificed so much to protect our freedom. This area was originally the Ludlow Apple Orchard.

LUDLOW PARK
Ludlow Park is named for the Ludlow family, from whose farm it came. They purchased the land from the first settler, G.J. Hoffman. The Okabena Apple was developed here. There is a shelter house, fishing pier, play ground and newly constructed amphitheater.

PUPPY PARK
A public place for your dog to exercise, play and enjoy the outdoors with you. Located on First Avenue SW at the Southeast end of Olson Park.
Olson Park, on the west end of Lake Okabena, was built on land donated to the city by industrialist-philanthropist E.O. Olson. Additional acreage came from the Haack sisters and Genevieve Peters. Overnight camping with 68 campsites, 62 of which have electricity, tent camping, shelter house, picnic facilities, dump station and nature trail under the canopy of large trees make this a most pleasant experience. To reserve a camping spot, call 507-329-0760 or 507-372-8600.

Skateboard Park
Large concrete surface containing 3 ft. quarter pipe, 18 ft. wide; 2 ft. custom grind box, 19 ft. wide; grind rail, 12 ft. long; and 3 ft. quarter bank, 18 ft. wide. Located at Centennial Park.

Sailboard Beach
This park is home to the Windsurfing Regatta & Music Festival in June. Located on the east side of Lake Okabena, was the site of the former municipal power plant. There is a wonderful seating area, fishing pier and access to the hiking and biking trails.

Sunset Park
This one acre park was given to the city by E.O. Olson in 1945. A boat landing, small picnic shelter and fishing dock are on the premises.

Slater Park
Slater Park was part of the property owned by the Southwest Minnesota Tuberculosis Sanitarium, whose director was Dr. Sidney Slater, after whom the park was named. A shelter house, restrooms, swim beach, playground and boat landing are located at Slater Park.

Vogt Park
Vogt Park is named for the Vogt family, three generations of which have lived on the farm located near the park. A swimming beach and picnic table are available here.
